KRUGER IS FOR PEACE

Makes Lord Salisbury a Proposition to Cease Hostilities.

HIS PLEA IGNORED.

It Is Believed It Is Only a Ruse, and When Terms Are Named Kruger Will Not Be Prepared to Accept Them Satisfactorily.

London, March 9. — From various quarters come signs of the possibility of peace in South Africa being shortly within the bounds of practical politics. All dispatches from Roberts' headquarters, including those of the commander-in-chief himself, indicate a lack of guiding spirit among the Boers and of individual demoralization, portending disintegration unless speedily stemmed. The flight of burghers from Poplar Grove, according to accounts, was wholly inglorious.

A Times dispatch from Poplar Grove under Thursday's date, goes so far as to assert the rout of the Boers was so complete that submission of the Free State is being demanded by the burghers from their unwilling president and expected its submission will be made within a week. The correspondent adds:

"Probably the Boers' wisest course was flight, but it was most undignified and is certain to produce consternation at Bloemfontein. There is a growing outcry against any further identification of the Free State with Transvaal's interests." Dispatches from the Boer camp at Glencoe depict President Kruger as donning a bandolier, seizing a rifle and inviting the volunteers to accompany him as he wished to have a shot at the enemy himself. President Kruger also is quoted as having declared in an address to the troops that he "did not know whether arbitration or intervention would end the struggle, but it would come quickly, within the next month he strongly believed."

In the meanwhile the British are not staying their advance. Roberts has moved 10 miles nearer Bloemfontein, evidently with the view of seizing and utilizing the railroad, and possibly hope to reach the Free State capital within three or four days, whence he may begin repairing the railroad southward, meeting the British advance from Cape Colony, which is expected to be hastened as soon as White's forces take control.

Late this afternoon it was learned that peace rumors were founded on fact, for President Kruger has appealed to Lord Salisbury for a cessation of hostilities, offering at length, by cable, the terms which he is willing to accept. This, however, is not taken seriously as they include practically nothing more than what the Transvaal government offered prior to the issuing of the British ultimatum.

In official circles here the propositions are regarded merely as a ruse of the Boers, to gain time and it is not considered that President Kruger is yet ready to consider the sweeping demand which Great Britain will make as a reimbursement for the loss of life and great expenditures.

It is understood that President Kruger's advances has met with emphatic rejection at the hands of Lord Salisbury who is believed to have said no such attempt to gain the independence of the Transvaal can be considered for a moment by the British government.

The British occupied Jamestown unopposed Thursday and the Boers are reported to be retreating beyond Aliwal North, so that Cape Colony is practically clear of armed Boers.

Reinforcements from Natal are going to Roberts. Warren's division and some artillery have already been ordered to join the commander-in-chief so the latter is preparing for all eventualities, including the possible desperate opposition to his crossing Vaal river and the necessity of a siege of Pretoria, where thousands of natives are reported to be employed in the construction of defensive works, concerning which such secrecy is maintained that no one is allowed to walk or drive on the outskirts of town. The war office has received the following dispatch from Roberts:

"Poplar Grove, March 8.—President Kruger and Steyn were both present at the fight on March 7, and did all in their power to rally their troops. The rout, however, was complete, the men declaring they could not stand against British artillery and such a formidable force of cavalry."

Great Britain's War Loan. London, March 9.—The amount of the new war loan will be £30,000,000. Interests will be at 3½ per cent and the bonds to be redeemable at par May 5, 1910.

Advance in Wages. Youngstown, O., March 9.—At the wage conference here between representatives of the Amalgamation association and the iron manufacturers an advance of 25 cents a ton in the rate for puddling was agreed upon. The rate will now be $6 a ton, the highest price paid since 1880. There will be an advance in the finishing department also of about 4 per cent. About 20,000 miners are affected by the advance.

Burton Renominated. Cleveland, March 9.—Congressman T. E. Burton was renominated by the Republicans of the Twenty-first Ohio district.

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT. He Talks of the Democracy of Industry to Workingmen.

New York, March 9.—Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, lecturing Thursday night to workmen on "The Democracy of Industry" said:

"My object is a very simple one. It is to try to put before you the goal toward which we ought to be moving, and some of the steps by which to approach it. I have endeavored to describe by the words 'Industrial Democracy' the ultimate end toward which we ought to strive. In politics we have obtained democracy—the rule of the common people. There are bosses, I know, but they remain bosses only so long as the people consent. While there is democracy in politics there is not democracy in industry. I am not going to argue whether there should be an industrial democracy or not. I am going to assume there should be, and that is the ultimate end toward which we would work."

Outlining the evolution of labor conditions from feudalism when the labor and land were owned by the feudal lords to the present time when the laborer is free to move about as he will, Dr. Abbott said:

"Now the capitalists own the tools with which the laborer must work. Now the laborer is subject to the man who owns the tools. The men who do the work should own the tools. This means that the laborers should own the railroads and mines on and in which they work. That is, labor should employ capital, instead of capital employing labor."

Dr. Abbott suggested several steps which might be taken immediately toward the attainment of this end. These steps included reform in taxation, abolition of all government privileges, popular ownership of natural monopolies, saving of money and a broadening of industrial education.

CAN DEFEND CANAL.

United States Makes a Deal Whereby It Will Be Protected.

Washington, March 9.—The senate committee on foreign relations agreed to report the Hay-Pannecote treaty amending the Clayton-Bulwer treaty with an amendment granting authority for the canal to be protected by this country when constructed.

The foreign relations committee was practically unanimous in favor of amendment to the treaty. Some objection was made by Senator Morgan of Alabama, but he will not oppose the measure in the senate, accepting the change in order to hasten action of the senate. Quite an elaborate report has been prepared by Mr. Morgan which will be submitted to the senate in executive session when the treaty is reported. It is the opinion of members of the committee that the senate with little delay will ratify the treaty as amended. The amendment is brief. It simply provides that restrictions in the treaty shall not operate to prevent the United States from using its own forces for the defense of the interests of the United States and for the maintenance of order.

Mr. Morgan was the only member of the committee who cast a vote against the amendment. Senators Bacon and Daniel, the only other Democrats present, voting with the Republicans. They also voted with the Republicans to have treaty reported as an amendment. While no member was authorized to speak for Great Britain the opinion was expressed that the government of that country would agree to the proposed modification of the treaty.

Stratton's Latest Purchase.

Colorado Springs, March 9.—W. S. Stratton, the Cripple Creek bonanza king, has purchased the Night Hawk and Nightengale claims on Bull Hill for $200,000 consideration. The claims adjoin Stratton's John A. Logan mine, now at 1200 feet, the deepest workings in Cripple Creek. The two claims have outpitted $50,000, but have lacked development. The purchase is significant, since Mr. Stratton has just begun to ship from the Logan, whose rich ore bodies have been uncovered only last week. The sensation of the camp was Stratton's purchase of 95 per cent of the Temonjo stock of $350,000.

Indian Territory Lessees.

Ardmore, I. T., March 9.—The Curtis bill is having its effect upon the tenants of leased lands in the Territory. The Indians contemplated the possession of the leased lands through provision of the Curtis act, which specified that all land leases terminated Jan. 1, 1900. Many suits were filed by citizens as a result of this provision to dispossess tenants who refused to vacate the land, but

ROBBINS UNSEATED.

Republicans Put Aldrich in His Place in the House.

VOTE WAS 135 TO 142

The Tariff for Puerto Rico Took up the Time of the Senate, on Which Foraker and Pettus Were the Speakers.

Washington, March 9.—The house has unseated Gaston A. Robbins, Democrat, from the Fourth Alabama district, and seated in his stead, William F. Aldrich, a Republican who has been three times a contestant from the same district on the same ground of fraud, and who is now given his seat for the third time by a Republican house. The vote was a strict party one. The minority resolution declaring Mr. Robbins entitled to retain his seat was defeated by a vote of 134 to 138 and then by 135 to 143 Mr. Aldrich, the contestant, was declared entitled to the seat. Mr. Aldrich was sworn in at once.

Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, from the committee on rules, presented a special rule, setting aside the second and fourth Fridays of each month for private pension legislation. The rule limited the debate on each bill to 10 minutes a side.

Mr. Richardson in a 15 minute speech, criticised the rule and questioned the necessity for it. He declared that the other side, if it lived up to its professions of friendship for the old soldiers, could bring a quorum to the house on Friday evenings. He protested against the proposed time limit and assured the majority that there would be no filibustering on his side of the house against pension bills.

Mr. Mahon, (Rep. Pa.) followed Mr. Richardson. He attacked Mr. Talbert of South Carolina, who had blocked pension legislation on Friday nights by demanding the presence of a quorum. He said he acquitted the other side of any sympathy with him.

Mr. Mahon's attack led to hot words between him and Mr. Talbert, the former expressing a wish that he might have an opportunity to oust Mr. Talbert from congress and the latter denouncing a member who would express the hope that someone, Populist or Republican, would contest his seat, in order that he could vote to throw him out without reason or justice as the gentleman from Alabama had been thrown out a few moments ago. [Democratic applause.]

Proceeding, Mr. Talbert denounced the Republicans as hypocrites and pretended friends of the old soldiers and reiterated his intention of insisting upon the presence of a quorum for consideration of pension bills whether the sessions were held at night or in the day time.

Mr. Dalzell withdrew the portion of the resolution fixing the limitation on debate and the rule was adopted without division.

Mr. Weeks of Michigan called up the Wise-Young contested election case from the Second Virginia district and gave notice that he should ask for a vote on it at 2 o'clock Monday.

The Senate.

Washington, March 9.—Former discussions of the Puerto Rican tariff and civil government bill continued uninterrupted for four hours and a half in the senate yesterday.

The principal speakers were Mr. Foraker, (Rep. O.) in charge of the measure, and Mr. Pettus, (Dem. Ala.) but at various times during the debate a lively colloquy occurred in which others senators were participants.

Mr. Pettus spoke in opposition to the pending bill. He argued that it was unconstitutional and in violation of the principles of this government as laid down by the fathers of the country.

Mr. Foraker occupied the floor during the remainder of the session. He explained the measure in detail. In his opinion it was impossible for a direct tax to be levied upon the people of the island to support a local government, because of their present destitute condition. Then, too, it was necessary that the question of the extension of the constitution over our insular possessions should be determined by the supreme court and by the very provisions of the bill, it would be inevitable that the supreme court should pass upon that question.

Puerto Rico and Philippines, he said, were on the same basis so that the court's decision would determine our right to levy a tariff on products of the eastern archipelago.

At the night session 159 pages of the Alaskan code bill were read and without concluding this formal but necessary work, the senate at 11:15 adjourned until today.

Weimar, Tex., March 9.—H. Fry Sigler accidentally shot himself with a 38-caliber pistol, the bullet entered near the right eye. He died from the wound.

FOR AMALGAMATION.

Social Democrats and Social Labor Parties Will Unite.

Indianapolis, March 9.—At the opening session of the national Social Democratic convention yesterday the conference committee composed of three representatives from the Socialist Labor party and three representatives of the Social Democratic party, reported in favor of the amalgamation of the two parties. The report declared the union was necessary and expedient.

NO NOMINATION.

Debs Refuses to Be the Candidate of the Social Democrats.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 9.—The Social Democratic national convention, after a stormy session adjourned without nominating a presidential candidate.

The committee from the Social Labor party and the subcommittee from the Social Democratic convention reported in favor of the amalgamation of the two parties, but could not agree on a name for the united party and over this question the convention quarreled all yesterday afternoon. After a prolonged wrangle the Social Democrats won.

Eugene V. Debs, who was placed in nomination for president, said under no circumstances would he be a candidate. He had private reasons for not desiring the nomination and he hoped the convention would accept his refusal.

Mr. Stedman of Illinois, nominated Fred O. McCartney of Massachusetts, for president and Representative Carey of Massachusetts, nominated Job Harriman of California, for president, and Max Hoyer of Cleveland, for vice president. Mr. Harriman declined and in the confusion that followed the convention adjourned. Efforts are being made to get Mr. Debs to run.

DEBS AND HARRIMAN.

Head the Social Democratic Ticket for President and Vice President.

Indianapolis, March 9.—For president, Eugene V. Debs of Indiana; for vice president, Job Harriman of California. This is the national ticket of the Social Democratic party which absorbs the Hilquitt-Harriman faction of the Socialist Labor party by agreement. Social Democrats are happy. They say the candidacy of Debs will attract hundreds of thousands of voters to their party. They profess to see the beginning of a great national victory. The convention, in agreeing to unite with the Socialist Labor faction, retains the party name, Social Democratic party. The candidates and amalgamation are to be approved by a majority of each party, according to a referendum.

Mr. Debs previously refused to accept the nomination, but finally succumbed to persuasion. It seems from explanations of friends that Mr. Debs had been applying his earnings to the extinction of the debt against the American Rail way union, and that he did not want to cease until the debt was paid. The debt amounted to several thousand dollars. Mr. Debs received the assurance that the debt would be taken care of and he would receive a rest of three months before entering the presidential canvass.

Stringent Bill Passed.

Frankfort, March 9.—The senate has passed Senator Bell's bill making it a felony, punishable by confinement in the penitentiary from 10 to 20 years, for an occupant of a state office to forcibly maintain possession of the office for more than five days after the legislature or other competent authority shall have decided some other person is entitled to the office. Four Democrats voted against the Bell bill.

The Bill Failed.

Frankfort, March 9.—The Triplett joint resolution to appropriate $100,000 to be expended under the supervision of Democratic Governor Beckham and Adjutant General Castleman, was defeated by failure to receive a constitutional majority. The resolution authorized the expenditure to arm a state guard and recover from Republican Governor Taylor the arms removed from Frankfort to London. Four Democratic senators, Roberts, Puryear, Jones and McConnell voted against it. The vote stood: Yeas 15, nays 4. It requires 19 votes to pass the bill.

Commander Shaw Coming.

Waco, Tex., March 9.—Gen. Albert D. Shaw of New York, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, together with other national Grand Army officers, will reach Texas on his southern tour about March 18, and on March 21 will have a grand reception at Dublin, Erath county, where Colonel John Roch, the commander of the Texas department, resides. An excursion from Waco over the Texas Central will go to Dublin to take part in the reception to be given to General Shaw by his aides. The Grand Army and the Woman's Relief corps will each send delegations.

His Back Was Broken.

Denton, Tex., March 9.—John Woodson, a young farm laborer near Aubrey, had his back broken by a falling tree. He was in a wagon and passing a dead tree, the wheel of the vehicle catching in vines hanging on tree, dragged it down on him, the trunk falling on him. At last accounts Woodson was still alive, but there is thought to be but little chance for his recovery.

James Miller Shot.

Kerrville, Tex., March 9.—James Miller was shot 18 miles above here. Miller was shot twice through the body and is not expected to live.

Church Building Plans.

Paris, Tex., March 9.—The Baptist at Sylvan, seven miles from Paris, are arranging to erect a church building.

George Washington as a Farmer.

Washington as a property owner was one of the wealthiest men in this country during the last quarter of the eighteenth century. He owned at the time of his death 51,398 acres, not including the Mount Vernon estate. The property of his wife was valued at $530,000. In 1793 Washington owned 317 head of cattle, 634 sheep, and 54 draught horses. The general live stock on his farm was estimated at $35,000. Over 200 persons lived on the Mount Vernon estate, and Washington employed his own carpenters, blacksmiths, weavers, masons, cobblers. A shrewd man at driving a bargain, cautious in all speculative ventures, and fond of the details of business as he was of military affairs, Washington's greatest ambition in time of peace was to be known as the first farmer of America.

One of his greatest treasures won as an agriculturist was a massive silver cup, nine inches high, elegantly chased, and bearing this inscription:

A Premium from the Agricultural Society of South Carolina to

George Washington

For raising the Largest Jackass."

Under the inscription a very realistic portrait of the animal was engraved. Washington's marriage to the widow Custis brought to his care an estate valued in round numbers at $100,000. This was great wealth in Washington's day. Farm Furnace and Factory.

Would Become a Habit.

The lawyer asked the witness if the incident previously alluded to wasn't a miracle, and the witness said he didn't know what a miracle was.

"Oh, come," said the attorney. "Suppose you were looking out of a window in the twentieth story of a building and should fall out and should not be injured. What would you call that?"

"An accident," was the stolid reply.

"Yes, yes, but what else would you call it? Well, suppose you were doing the same thing the next day, and suppose you looked out of the twentieth story window and fell out and again should find yourself not injured. Now, what would you call that?"

"A coincidence," said the witness.

"Oh, come, now," the lawyer began again. "I want you to understand what a miracle is, and I'm sure you do. Now, just suppose on the third day you were looking out of the twentieth story window and fell out, and struck your head on the pavement twenty stories below, and were not in the least injured. Come, now, what would you call that?"

"Three times?" said the witness, rousing a little from the apathy.

"Well, I'd call that a habit."

And the lawyer gave it up.

RIOT AT CHICAGO.

Several Men Shot and Beaten Among Union and Nonunion Workmen.

Chicago, March 9.—Labor troubles culminated in a riot at Thirty-sixth and Wallace streets Thursday evening. One man was shot and probably fatally wounded and six others were injured, one of them seriously. The injured persons are:

William Schindler, shot in the breast and seriously wounded.

Joseph Walsh, foreman for the Link Belt Machinery company, nose broken and severely bruised.

H. K. McLain, superintendent same company, beaten about head and body, not serious.

James Coffey, machinist, bruised about the body.

Sam Bonstra, slightly.

Peter D. Speck, machinist, beaten on head.

Nicholas de Bar, beaten about face.

It is believed that other persons were hurt in the fight, but they escaped before the police arrived and their names were not learned.

For some time the strikers have followed Walsh and McLain when they left the shop and have threatened to kill them. Somebody threw a club at Walsh, striking him on the back of the head. He accused Schindler and when the latter denied it a fight followed. A crowd of strikers gathered around and Walsh, believing his life was in danger shot Schindler in the breast. Schindler in reality had nothing to do with the original assault upon Walsh, having merely stopped to look at the crowd of men following Walsh and McLain.

A general fight followed the shooting of Schindler and the strikers to the number of 40 made an attack on Walsh, McLain, Coffey, Bonstra, Speck and De Bar, who defended themselves vigorously. Although badly pounded up they managed to hold their own and beat off their assailants until the arrival of the police. Walsh was placed under arrest.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Forty Buildings Burned at Leed, S. D., Causing a Loss of $500,000.

Lead, S. D., March 9.—The fire which broke out yesterday in the Dalkenberg saloon consumed 40 buildings before it was extinguished and caused a loss which is estimated at $500,000. The Deadwood fire department responded to calls for assistance. In addition to the combined fire department it was found necessary to blow up buildings in the path of the fire with dynamite in order to stop its spread. Owing to the high wind which was blowing, the scarcity of water and the inflammable nature of most of the buildings the firemen were unable to do anything to stay the flames in any other way.

Suspected Murderer Surrenders.

Knoxville, March 8.—David Payne, a deputy United States marshal, who was charged with assassinating Miles Woods and father in the mountains near Ducktown, Tenn., has surrendered to the sheriff here. Payne has been in hiding since the assassination. It is believed by some that he hid himself fearing mob violence. He declares his innocence. Woods was called to his door and shot down at night. His father, hearing the shot, ran out, and was also assassinated.

Lottery Tickets Seized.

San Antonio, March 9.—Two hundred and fifty lottery tickets were seized in a news store by Special Customhouse Officer W. F. Rattara of Del Rio here. The tickets ranged in value from 25 cents to $4. The seizure was made in accordance with section 16 of the Dingley tariff law which prohibits the importation and sale of lottery tickets in this country.

Woman Charged With Robbery.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 9.—Mrs. Flora Beasley was arrested here on a charge of robbing the postoffice at Spiro, I. T. Mrs. Beasley was postmaster at Spiro and after she reported the robbery last December she was relieved of further duty. She will be tried at Cameron.

Train Wrecks a Station.

Indianapolis, March 9.—A freight wreck occurred at New Point, on the Cincinnati division of the Big Four. Train No. 36, west bound, jumped the track at the station, demolishing the station house and fatally injuring Cora Wise, a telegraph operator. The crew escaped without injury.

A Fraudulent Preacher.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 9.—Richard Waller, a negro Baptist evangelist, pleaded guilty in the Federal court to using the mails for fraudulent purposes for advertising and selling Wyoming mining shares, which were fictitious, and was sentenced to six months in the De Kalb jail and to pay a fine of $50.

Given Two Years.

Kaufman, Tex., March 9.—The jury in the case of M. Lybrand, charged with conspiracy to forge a bill of lading by raising it from two to 200 bales, returned a verdict of guilty against the defendant and assessed his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for two years.

Barker and Parker.

Springfield, O., March 9.—National Chairman Thompson of this city is urged by Wharton Barker of Philadelphia and Jo Parker of Dallas, Tex., leaders of the People's Party, to call a union reform convention at Cincinnati to organize a union.

Cicero Barber Escapes.

Owensboro, Ky., March 9.—Cicero Barnett, who murdered his father with a hatchet here last summer, has escaped from jail at Hopkinsville. He is said to be a dangerous lunatic, and officers are planning a man hunt.

SHEEP AND CATTLEMEN.

The Old Feud in Arizona About to Break Out Again.

Prescott, Ariz., March 9.—Parties who arrived in Prescott from the Tonto basin country state that another war is threatened there similar to that of 1887 and 1888, when 40 people were killed in what was known as the Tewksbury-Graham feud. While not to exceed half a dozen men of those engaged in the above feud are alive today, the causes which brought it about still exist and new men seem willing to fight on the same old lines. The trouble is between the cattlemen and the sheepmen.

Large herds of sheep from northern Arizona are driven south for the winter, returning to their northern grazing grounds again in the spring, and one of the favorite routes is via Tonto basin, which is usually well watered and abounds in good grass. The drought of the past year has caused a shortage of both and cattlemen served notices on the sheepmen that on account of the conditions they would not be permitted to return north by this route this spring. The latter sent back word that they were going through Tonto basin if they had to fight their way.

The advance guard of the returning flocks were met by the cattlemen and turned back and scattered. Several cases of arms and ammunition are known to have also been made by the interested parties who purpose to shoot each other on sight.

GREETED BY COMRADES.

The Naval Brigade at Ladysmith Reach the Town of Durban.

Durban, March 9.—The naval brigade from Ladysmith arrived here. They number about 200 and were enthusiastically received. The railway station was lined with men from the cruiser Terrible and meeting of comrades caused many touching scenes. When the gunners who played such an important part in the defense of Ladysmith marched down the street headed by a band and the flags of the Terrible and carrying the tattered union jack from the cruiser Powerful which had flown throughout the siege at Ladysmith, the cheering was enormous. The crowd assembled was tremendous.

Lunch was prepared and served in a shed adjacent to the railway station and they ate heartily. A majority of them looked well but showed signs of rough work and fatigue they had undergone. Their uniforms bore many tokens of wear and tear, they had been subjected to. Headed by Captain Percy Scott, the naval commandant at Durban, the men marched to the place of embarkation for Simonstown.

RIOT AT A BULL FIGHT.

Seven Fighters Came Near Being Lynched in Mexico.

Austin, Tex., March 9.—A desperate riot, which came near resulting in a lynching of several bullfighters, took place at San Luis Potosi, Mex. The affair is described in a letter received here as follows:

"The bullfight of Sunday afternoon under the leadership of Jose Marrero of Havana, seven assistants, proved a failure. Five arrogant and valiant bulls had been promised. The first bull led out put up a little show of resistance and was killed, but not one of the others would fight at all. The audience began to hiss and groan and throw oranges, lemons and stones into the ring. Finally the disappointed audience tossed the chairs, benches and handrails into the ring and set them on fire. This stopped the performance. But even this exhibition did not satisfy the belligerents, who laid violent hands on the bullfighters and were in the act of lynching them when the police interfered."

Charles Wellington Rand Dead.

Burlington, March 9.—News was received of the death at Los Angeles, Cal., of Charles Wellington Rand, capitalist and millionaire of Burlington. Mr. Rand had gone to California for the benefit of his health. He was the president of the Rand & Leopold Desk company, one of the largest manufacturing companies in the west, and was a director in the National State bank, the Rand Lumber company of Burlington, the Carson-Rand Lumber company of Keokuk and the Valley Lumber company of Eau Claire, Wis. He owned some of the most valuable business property in Burlington and Keokuk, and was a most progressive citizen.

Bought Outright by the Frisco.

Kansas City March 9.—The Kansas City, Osceola and Southern, which affords the Kansas City inlet for the St. Louis and San Francisco from Bolivar, and which has been operated by the Frisco company under a lease for nearly two years past, has passed into the possession of the Frisco outright. The deal was consummated by the Frisco directors in New York with the representatives of the Blair estate, but the terms are not given out. It is the intention of the Frisco management to expend about $1,000,000 in the reconstruction of the line, relaying it with 85-pound rails, etc. This will make a strong line between Kansas City, Springfield and the southwest.

A Church Split.

Recovery, O., March 9.—The Christian church here is divided over the innovation of a regular choir, organ and missionary and aid societies. Some of the members have asked the courts to appoint a receiver for the church property and have a final accounting rendered.
